Around the Nation

FBI Kept File on Quaker Agency Since 1921.

The FBI has been keeping a file since 1921 •n the activities of the American Friends Service Committee, the Quaker pacifist and elief agency, the committee said yesterday.

"Since our carliest relief work we have often een investigated by the FBI or the Attorney Teneral's office, only to be inevitably 'cleared' is a genuinely religious, humanitarian organization." the committee said.

The committee's report, summarizing some ,300 pages of files obtained under the Frectom of Information Act from 10 federal inteligence agencies, called for the abolition of the Lentral Intelligence Agency and the internal ecurity division of the FBI.

An 11th federal agency, the National Securty Agency, refused to supply any files it might save kept, the Quakers said.

Founded in 1917 by the Society of Friends to rovide a wartime opportunity for service for onscientious objectors, the service committee hared the Nobel Peace Prize following World Var II for its postwar relief efforts in Europe.

drug—used by 92 per cent of the 116.500 drug users. But "hard" drugs also had high percentage rankings—heroin 50 per cent and cocaine 45 per cent.